Dear Party B

My name is . I have been contacted by Party A in regards to Guardianship and Parenting issues with a child/ren that are in their/your care.

Party A is seeking to have Mediation so as to appropriately discuss ways that both parents are able to reach an agreement that is in the child/ren's best interest.

The discussion would be focusing on Guardianship and Parenting Agreements. I have enclosed a Mediation request that both Party A and you will need to complete and return/post to SPS office. My contact phone number is . Once received I will contact both of you to arrange a suitable time to commence Mediation.

MEDIATORS BACKGROUND

I have a Post Graduate Diploma in Dispute Resolution. I have worked in Social Service areas as an Advocate assisting families for over 10 years. Separated Parenting Services is a new Social Service provider with the following mission statement;

Te Roopu Tupu Tahi – Growing Together in Unity

Separated Parenting Services works to ensure children's rights includes both a father and mother when a relationship breaks up. Separated Parenting Services will follow the principle of the 1989 United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child that has as its primary aim the promotion of the best interest of a child. Our services are extended to any family member who wants to be actively involved in their children's or grandchildren's lives, including step-parents.
